

Vaudreuil-Dorion

PRESS RELEASE

L'avenir est ICI

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Vaudreuil-Dorion to host the 32nd Les Arts et la Ville convention

Vaudreuil-Dorion, June 8, 2018 – The City of Vaudreuil-Dorion is proud to have been chosen to host the 32nd Les Arts et la Ville convention to be held on June 5, 6 and 7, 2019. The announcement was made during the 2018 edition which ended today in Sept-Îles.

This major cultural event brings together some 300 conference delegates from every corner of Quebec as well as from Acadia and several Canadian communities, including mayors, municipal councillors and officials, entrepreneurs, artists, researchers and cultural professionals.

Every year, this convention is also the opportunity to present the Les Arts et la Ville awards aimed at publicly spotlighting the cultural commitment of municipalities, organizations and artists who work in our communities.

“We are proud to be able to host such an event. Over the last few years, Vaudreuil-Dorion has carved out an enviable position for itself on the cultural front with its Je suis... project and its cultural mediation. In addition to discovering historically rich places such as Maison Félix-Leclerc and Maison Trestler, conference delegates will have the opportunity to meet a community that is incredibly dynamic and involved,” stated Mayor Guy Pilon.

About Les Arts et la Ville

Created in 1987, the Les Arts et la Ville network is a registered charity with over 640 members from the municipal world, the world of culture and its allies. It brings together thousands of municipal elected officials and civil servants, artists and cultural workers that play a role in creating vibrant communities. Firmly established in Quebec, the latter represents 75% of its population.