

Vaudreuil-Dorion

PRESS RELEASE

L'avenir est ICI

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Former Cowboys Fringants drummer set to perform at Maison Félix-Leclerc

Vaudreuil-Dorion, November 8, 2018 – The City of Vaudreuil-Dorion is pleased to invite its citizens to attend a special Jam au salon night with Domlebo on Friday, November 9 at 7:00 p.m., at Maison Félix-Leclerc. This intimate performance is part of La Mèz's line-up of unique activities.

Accompanied by his guitar and his favourite bass guitarist and drummer, the former Les Cowboys Fringants drummer will give the audience a chance to discover his latest creations, and ask them for help in deconstructing them. As such, the crowd will be called upon to provide their reactions, vote and act as co-artistic directors for his upcoming album. This concert/workshop is sure to be anything but ordinary!

This special event is offered free of charge, and registration is not required. However, as spaces are limited, people are invited to arrive early.

About La Mèz's line-up of events

A line-up of activities that spotlights having fun with words, much like Félix did—hosted in his former home on Chemin de l'Anse. La Mèz's edgy line-up features a variety of cultural evenings on Fridays at 7:00 p.m.

For more information on La Mèz's opening hours or to learn more about its events and activities, visit maisonfelixleclerc.org or call 450 455-3371, Option 4.