FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Vincent Bastien named Director of the Recreation and Culture Department

Vaudreuil-Dorion, September 1, 2020 – The City of Vaudreuil-Dorion is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Vincent Bastien to the position of Director of the Recreation and Culture Department. A graduate in management from HEC Montréal, Mr. Bastien has over fifteen years' experience in project, event and team management.

Very involved in the community of Vaudreuil-Soulanges, Vincent Bastien has contributed to the success of several regional events such as the Vaudreuil-Soulanges Chamber of Commerce and Industry Gala, the Vaudreuil-Soulanges Palliative Care Residence's Happening Gala, the Osmose Ball and the Vaudreuil-Dorion Circus Festival, to name just a few. He has also provided his expertise for the organization of several Montreal events, including the Just for Laughs Festival, Bouffons Montréal, the Rogers Cup, Les Grands Ballets Canadiens de Montréal's Nutcracker Market and the Grand Marché de Noël de Montréal.

"I am very pleased to welcome Mr. Bastien to the municipal organization. I have no doubt that his leadership, his great ability to manage human resources, his sense of organization and his strategic vision will be major assets for the City of Vaudreuil-Dorion. Mr. Bastien is a well-known figure within our administration, having been involved in several of our City's key projects, including the Je suis... project, the Fête urbaine at Place Dumont, the circus festival, the temporary drive-in movie theatre and the Saint-Jean-Baptiste festivities. He will head an experienced and dynamic team whose priority is offering citizens a wide range of quality services," stated Director general Olivier Van Neste.

Mr. Bastien takes up his duties today.
