

Vaudreuil-Dorion

PRESS RELEASE

L'avenir est ICI

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Maison Félix-Leclerc opens its doors

Vaudreuil-Dorion, March 12, 2021 – The City of Vaudreuil-Dorion is pleased to announce the reopening of Maison Félix-Leclerc. Starting on March 13th, visitors will be able to visit Félix Leclerc's former home accompanied by a guide and take some time to enjoy the exhibitions on Saturdays and Sundays between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m., completely free of charge!

The works of Fabienne Legrand and Monique Chéry will be on display until May 30th. An exhibition organized by La Société de sauvegarde de la mémoire de Félix Leclerc is also being featured to mark the organization's twentieth anniversary.

"We are truly pleased to be able to welcome visitors back to Maison Félix-Leclerc. The exhibitions have been ready for months. At last, the public will be able to admire the works of our artists", commented Chloé Marcil, Head of the City of Vaudreuil-Dorion's Culture and Community Life department.

The programming team is currently working on putting together a variety of cultural activities for the population to enjoy in the gardens this summer.

Remember that masks are required inside the house, where all sanitary measures are in place to ensure people's safety.